Kensington Olympia Festival of Music and the Arts

KOFMA

KOFMA is a registered charity which focuses on promoting music and the arts by providing a platform for young, emerging artists. We aim to provide affordable events of exceptional quality to our diverse community, bringing them together in love for the arts.

SPONSOR KOFMA

When you consider a contribution to our festival, there are a number of different options from which to choose:

CORPORATE SPONSORS

The gifts from generous benefactors allow the festival to flourish, and make a difference in the community.

The patronage of enthusiasts and ticket sales enable us to stage impressive operas, concerts and art exhibitions.

£50 to £50,000

Donors of over £100 will receive complimentary tickets and a mention in the brochure.

SUPPORTING ARTISTS

Contributing to KOFMA has a significant impact on the emerging careers of young artists. The infusion of funds is the foundation for a lifetime of work. We rely on this rewarding patronage to launch and stage their performances.

£50 to £50,000

Donors over £100 will receive complimentary tickets and mention in the brochure.

ADVERTISING AND RAFFLE

We are seeking prizes from generous donors for our auction and raffle. To date these have included a weekend in a beautiful apartment on the Amalfi Coast, a weekend in a Norfolk house with a private concert, a bespoke jacket from a local couture designer, and a voucher for our local Brook Green Market.

FESTIVAL BROCHURE ADVERT

There will be glossy A5 brochure, outlining the Festival programme for the week. The great majority of those who will receive this programme live locally, making it a perfect chance to increase your exposure in the surrounding areas.
